

COWHIDED FOR INSULTING BRIDE.

Zeterberg Met His Rival on Brooklyn's Shore Road and Lashed Him.

MR. LOUIS ELLSWORTH ZETERBERG.

MRS. LOUIS ELLSWORTH ZETERBERG.

For writing a note to a bride of a week a young man was whipped last night at Ninety-second street and the shore road, Brooklyn.

Louis Zeterberg, proprietor of a hotel at Ninety-ninth street and Third avenue, Brooklyn, applied the whip.

For several weeks a party of young men had been visiting Zeterberg's hotel, among them was Joseph Marion, twenty-two years old, a clerk formerly in the employ of George A. Higgins, Mrs. Zeterberg's father.

As Zeterberg was closing his place Wednesday night his wife passed the door. Marion, who was leaving, threw a note to her. It read:

"I have waited all day to see you. I am to-morrow at 7 o'clock sharp without fail. Come sure. Ninety-second street and shore road."

Mrs. Zeterberg gave the note to her husband. At the appointed hour Zeterberg, armed with a stout horsewhip, met Marion.

Zeterberg, without waiting to hear explanations, began to ply the lash about Marion's head and shoulders. Not until the mother had begged for mercy did he desist. Marion was fearfully cut up.

FOUGHT WITH A MAD WOMAN.

Mrs. Simon Refused to Go to the Hospital at Night.

After a hard struggle Mrs. Maggie Simon was removed from her home, 64 East Seventeenth street, early this morning suffering from temporary insanity.

Mrs. Simon is thirty-five years old. She lives with her husband and three children on the third floor of a tenement house. She has been ill for some time, and her illness affected her mind.

For several days she has been violent at times. Last night she was worse than usual. She refused to go to bed. "A man is following me with a knife," she declared. "He is trying to kill me."

Despite her husband's efforts to quiet her she spent most of the night wandering around her apartments, locking and opening doors and trying to escape her supposed would-be assassin.

At 3:30 A. M. a policeman was called and he summoned Dr. Maxwell, of Bellevue Hospital. He said Mrs. Simon would have to go to the insane pavilion. She declared she would not go, and the policeman and her husband grabbed her.

RATHER DIE THAN SLAVE.

Young Man Cut His Throat with a Penknife Because Censured by Employer.

William Greeby, twenty-five years old, of 137 East One Hundred and Seventeenth street, attempted to cut his throat this morning in a greenhouse owned by Herman, the florist, on Avenue B, Unionport. The young man used a penknife and did himself small harm.

Greeby's employer reprimanded the young man for indifferent work and warned him that he must mend his ways or be dismissed.

"I don't care 3 cents anyhow," replied Greeby, "what's the use of living anyhow when you got to be a slave? I'm going to end it some of these days."

A short time afterward Mr. Herman found Greeby in the greenhouse with his throat gashed. He sent him to the Fordham Hospital.

LIVED ON NUT AND FRUIT DIET.

Speaker Henderson's Daughter Victim of Queer Fad.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The reason why Miss Henderson, the daughter of Speaker Henderson, has been sent to a sanitarium is due to her persistence in living on a fruit and nut diet.

Her mother is with her at the Weir Mitchell Sanitarium in Philadelphia. It was said today that because for an operation had been narrowly averted.

For two years Miss Henderson has been a devotee of the nut and fruit diet. She pursued her musical studies while following the diet and the result was nervous collapse.

Every morning Miss Henderson, on waking would eat an orange or banana and a quantity of peaches and English walnuts. In vain her father and mother pleaded with her to take more solid food.

She drank no liquid but water. Lunch and dinner were made up of more nuts and fruit.

After six months of this diet Miss Henderson grew apathetic. Finally her system broke down and for months she has been unable to retain solid food. Acute dyspepsia and nervous prostration made the surgeon despair of a time of saving her life without an operation.

AT A SEWING SOCIETY.

Lady Gets Punny on a Nerveless (?) Drink.

"Our Sewing Society meets every week to sew and we always have lunch. Just as sure as I take a cup of coffee I get so silly and say such absurd things it seems as though I were intoxicated. I feel so ashamed of myself, but cannot help it. My heart will go like a triphammer and I am invariably kept awake half of that night. So I thought I would take my Postum Food Coffee the next time you should have heard the names they called me, 'old maid,' 'crank,' &c. But before the lunch was through, Postum had more than one convert and those who tried it were delighted. They had heard of it, but had no idea it was so good. 'I have given a great deal of Postum away to friends, just to convince them how good it is and they invariably adopt it. There are so many people who cannot drink coffee without it distressing them, and Postum Food Coffee seems to be exactly the thing. Postum and I have been old friends for years. I began the use of it when it was first introduced, four or five years ago. At first I thought I could not use it; for the way I made it, it was so flat and tasteless, but when I found out that it simply required long boiling, the old trouble disappeared and we always have an elegant cup of coffee, when we make Postum right.' Send postal card to Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., for the name and address. Put a small piece of butter the size of two pears in the pot, to prevent it boiling over."
